Re: United States v. Thomas Jefferson Kent
S5 13 Cr. 571 (KBF)

Your Honor:

Mr. Kent is scheduled to be sentenced by the Court on July 25, 2014 at 2 p.m. For the following reasons, I am requesting that the sentence for Mr. Kent be adjourned for approximately 10 days.

I was on vacation from June 27, 2014 to July 10, 2014. Upon my return to work today, I intended to file my sentencing submission for Mr. Kent. However, I learned from United States Probation Officer Kisha Singleton that Mr. Kent's financial affidavit (which he submitted while I was on vacation) requires some clarification and additional information. I have not yet been able to reach Mr. Kent to discuss this matter with him, although I have left him several telephone messages.

I apologize for having to request an adjournment of the sentencing at such a late date. Nonetheless, a short adjournment of the sentence will permit Mr. Kent to provide the Probation Office with the requested information and will provide the Court with a more accurate picture of Mr. Kent's financial situation.

The government does not object to this request for an adjournment.¹

Thank you very much for consideration of this request.

Respectfully submitted,

Mark B. Gombiner
Attorney for Thomas J. Kent
